ban in Chandrapur district

THE MAHARASHTRA Cabinet on ban imposed on Chandrapur dis-trict by the previous BJP-led gov-ernment. The decision was taken refined. The decision was taken following an expert committee's recommendation and to stop largescale illegal sale of liquor in the district. In April 2015, then Devendra Fadnavis-led govern-then state Assembly in 2018, then state excise minister had promised to appoint a committee for the same. A committee headed by retired former principal secretary Ramanath Jha was set up in January this year for this purpose. The committee, which sub-mitted its report on March 9, con-cluded that the execution of the ban has been largely unsuccessful and illegal and duplicate liquor is normas peernatgey unsoccessful and illegal and duplicate liquor is available in the district's black market. This has not only increased black-marketing of liquor but the state government has incurred revenue loss while criminals have benefited financially, it had said. Besides, the growing involvement of women and children in illicit liquor trade has created a wornying situation, the committee had said, adding that a majority of organisations and people have voted in favour of lifting the ban.

The ban has led to a sharp rise in anti-social activities and crime in Chandrapur. While 16,132 po-lice cases were registered in 2010-2014,40,381 cases were registered in 2015-2019 after the ban was im-

From the district, local residents, gramp anahoyats, teachers and women's as well as social and religious organisations had sub-mitted 2,699 labh memorandums to the district collector. While 243 labh supported the lifting of the ban, over 25,000 supported the ban. With this, liquor consumption is nowhamed in only two districts only two districts. is now banned in only two districts and SRA start rehabilitation of local slum dwellers

PUNE. MAY27

IN A major push for the development of interconnected stations across the city's Metro routes, the Pune Municipal Corporation (PMC) and the Slum Rehabilitation authority (SRA) has started rehabilitation authority (SRA) has started rehabilitation of nearly 1,000 families in Kamgar Putla slums, so that the shumland in the heart of the city can be handed over to the Pune Metro project.

The Maha-Metro is planning to construct two interconnected stations on two different Metro routes, at the Shivajinagar godown site and the adjoining slums of Kamgar Putla, in the first phase.

There are over 1000 shanines

godown site and the adjoining slums of Kamgar Putla, in the first phase.

"There are over 1,000 shanties in the slum in Kamgar Putla. We have been holding discussions with the slum dwellers for a long time. Some of them had accepted the offer of rehabilitation but manyof them were against It. The PMC has now issued notices to slum dwellers to vacate the land by May 31, after which the land would be acquired forcefully as per the provisions of law, and it would be the provisions of law, and it would be handed over for the metro all project," said Deputy Municipal Commissioner Vinit Udas, who is in charge of vacating the machine of the provision of the provision signary for the project, in the next two weeks. SRACEO Rajendra Nimhalkar said, "We have already started a special drive for registration of properties in the name of slum dwellers who are being rehabili-tated to different SRA projects. We have completed the registra-tion process of 250 families and handed over properties in Vimannagar to them. A total of 400 families will be rehabilitated in SRA buildings in Vimannagars, 450 in Hadapsar and the remain-ing in other locations." A temporary registration of-fice has been set up on SSPMS premises near Kamgar Putla, he said, adding. "We are appealing to slum dwellers to come forward and complete the rehabilitation to slum dwellers to come forward and complete the rehabilitation process by registering the property in their name. A team of SKA has been reaching out to them. and discussions are also being held with representatives of slums and the local corporator to convince all slum dwellers to vacate the land."

Pune Metro General Manager Hemant Sonawane said the agency was hopeful of getting control of the land in the next few days. "We have handed over the cash amount to SKA for rebabilitation. and they have speeded up the process. Pune Metro will soon increase the pace of work at the siste after getting possession of the land. It will help in erecting pillars for an elevated route from Vanaz to Ramward and development of the stations," he said.
